BRAND SOURCE SERVICE, in association with Reliable Parts, is excited to announce a technical training seminar in Portland, OR Wednesday, October 29.

What is the format of the seminars?

General Electric and Whirlpool will each host two hour morning and afternoon technical training seminars. This will allow attending technicians to attend seminars presented by both manufacturers.

Who will provide the technical training?

Representatives from General Electric and Whirlpool will present the technical training.

What is the content of the technical training?

General Electric will present training on electronic refrigerators manufactured June 2001 to present. Whirlpool will present training on the Duet washer and dryer including all service updates.

Who is eligible to attend?

The seminars are industry events and all appliance service companies are welcome to attend, provided they are not members of a competing buying group.

How do I sign up?

Complete and return the attached registration form.
